

Business Partnership Opportunities

Support the Community You Serve Everyday.

At Alachua Habitat for Humanity, we believe in partnerships that are mutually beneficial. We know that our partnerships yield tremendous benefits for Habitat, but we strongly believe our organization becomes even better when we offer additional value and benefit to our partners. For two consecutive years, the Harris Poll recognized Habitat for Humanity as the most trusted and well known social service brand, in the world. This is not only a huge accolade for Habitat, but it also greatly benefit's the companies who partner with us.

Partnering with Habitat also provides opportunities for a company's employees to engage in positive team-building activities. Countless studies show that when a company invests in causes that their employees and customers care about, a deeper sense of commitment to the company's success emerges, fostering heightened brand loyalty.
